PROFILE

Product designer with a background in visual communication (B.A., Pforzheim) and an M.A. in Interface Design (FH Potsdam). For four years the sole designer at FYTA, a Berlin plant sensor startup, owning app, website and packaging end to end, from system logic to final screen. Rebuilt the app from one to five supported sensor models and took three new products to launch, working closely with hardware and firmware. Strongest where technical complexity has to meet everyday use. Looking for a hands-on product design role.

EXPERIENCE

10/2022 TO PRESENT

Head of Product Design · FYTA · Berlin

Owned concept, research, UX and UI for app, website and packaging as the sole designer, from requirement to final screen.

Rebuilt the app from one to five supported sensor models, restructuring system logic, onboarding, error handling and data visualisation.

Took three new sensor products from product definition to launch.

Worked closely with hardware and firmware to align technical feasibility with user needs.

Presented design decisions and trade-offs to leadership on a regular basis to agree on scope and priorities.

Mentored a working student and several interns through briefings and design reviews.

Set up design principles, guidelines and project planning where no design structure existed before.
